LET ME GO

Do you mind stepping back
Cut me some slack
Give me space to breathe
I'm always stuck underneath
Do you mind taking in
Let me begin
To clear things up once and for all
I've done all I could
You felt misunderstood
Didn't know what I was supposed to do
Spent all these years
Drying all your tears
Can't take the fall for you anymore

Won't you let me go
By now you should know
Learn to forget about me
Comes a time when you start to be free

Do you mind cooling off
Stop acting tough
Give me a chance to say
That I'll be on my way
Do you mind stepping down
Give up the crown
Sometimes a queen's got to move on I've done all I can
To be your loving man
I don't know what to do
Spent all these years
Drying all your tears
I can't be your tissue anymore no

Freedom is what I need
Is what I need to set me free oh
Freedom is what I need
Is what I need to set me free oh

Won't you let me go
Deep down inside you know
Learn to forget about me
Comes a time when you start to be free

Comes a time when you start to be free
Comes a time when you start to be free

FALLING APART

When we make a fight out of nothing
When we make a fight out of everything that we used to love
When we try to hide our feelings
When we try to hide our fear of being alone
When we see the light in the distance
When we see the light shining down on our crooked souls
When we feel the need to break out
When we feel the need for a change to finally come along

There's no way out of this anymore
There's no way
Out of this mess

Love, love keeps falling apart
Something went wrong
And I knew from the start
Said our love, love keeps falling apart
Something went wrong
And I knew
I knew right from the start

When we start to cry over nothing
When we start to cry over little things that don't matter at all
When we lose faith in each other
When we lose faith in the trust we used to build for years

And I knew from the start

Love is a temple that keeps rising above
I've been calling the shots out
From the dark
I said our love is a temple that keeps rising above

Love keeps falling apart
Something went wrong

Love love love
Love love love
Love love love
Is falling apart

DROWNING

Will you look into my heart
All that's left is a dark place
There's not one single spark
They're all off and gone on a long way
You tried to pull me out of this mess
With all your sweet lovin' and your tenderness
You tried to keep me out of the cold
You give me shelter honey a warm place to hold

But I'm drowning again
My head is in the water this is the end
But I'm drowning again

EASE YOUR WORRIED MIND

Diving in an ocean
Filled with love and I wanna taste the potion
Caught up in a whirlwind
Feeling dazed and confused don't remember where I've been I'm running from the headlights
I keep my eyes wide open all the time
Hanging from the ceiling
Floating through the air what a funny little feeling

What I gotta do to ease your worried mind
What I gotta do to prove that your still mine
What I gotta do to ease your worried mind
What I gotta do to prove that your still mine

Standing at the crossroad
My feet are blistered I don't know where to go
I'm praying to the good lord
I hope to see him soon before I get to bored
Now I'm diving in an ocean
Filled with love and I wanna taste the potion
Drifting towards nowhere
I'm lost and alone and I'm supposed to care

Said I don't wanna hurt nobody
Said I don't wanna hurt no one
I better be going now
Before the damage is done

MY NAME

What have I done
Where will I go
Do you even know my name
As time goes by
I realise
That there is no one left to blame

I tried to be
A loving man
But all I've done is broken hearts
Now I see
That the hardest thing
Is collecting all the parts

I'm in a crazy spot
My life is crashing
And there's no way it'll stop
I'm in a crazy spot
My life is falling apart

You let me in
You break me free
From these chains around my soul
I wish I were
As strong as you
But I guess that's not my role

Oh, I'm in a crazy spot
My life is crashing
My life is falling

I'm outta love
Full of guilt
How can I make you understand
The pain I feel
Takes time to heal
I need more than a helping hand

DREAMING

Please wake me up before it's to late
Trapped in a nightmare and I can't think straight
I've got a confused mind that's Spinning me round 'n' round
Won't somebody help me get my feet back on the ground

When I'm dreaming of you girl
It's like I'm in a different world
Trouble seems to fade away
Trouble has no chance to stay

Please wake me up I'm losing my mind
Close to the edge and almost blind
Cold sweat on my face, cold blood in my veins
Flashing lights that drive me insane

Please wake me up before it's to late
I've got a restless mind getting more and more out of hand
Like little nemo stuck in slumberland

When I'm dreaming of you girl
I'm still dreaming
It's like I'm in a different world
Dreaming of you girl
Trouble seems to fade away
I'm still dreaming
Dreaming of you girl
Where trouble seems to fade away
I'm still dreaming
With every single word you say
Dreaming of you girl
Fade away
I'm still dreaming
Oh no no no no no
Dreaming of you girl
Of you girl

WE'D BETTER

I never tried to take it
Up with you
I know that that's a battle
I was born to lose
People will try to pull you, pull you down
But then you know what you just got to turn it around

We'd better take our time
Before we lose our mind
We'd better take it slow
Before we've got to
We've got to go

No use in running honey
No use in going fast
This time we've got right now
We gonna make it last
People will try to rush you to make a move
Don't bother sitting back for a while Cause you got nothing to prove

Before we've got to
Before we've got to

TROUBLE AFFAIR

I got myself into a trouble affair
Some drunken bitches man what do I care
I've been strolling around night after night
Always trying to keep out of these dirty fights

But I'm coming home
And it won't be long
Before I'm gone
I'm coming home

My mama told me when I was a little boy
Said you better not play with guns cause a gun ain't no toy
You better be careful of the people that you meet
Cause you never know if they've been living on the streets

People tell me you better stay in line
Don't lose your head and don't waste your time
People tell me you gotta have a dream
Let your mind float up stream

I'm coming

WHEN THE SUN GOES DOWN

I want a girl
I want her to be
Five foot ten inches baby
Walking down with me
I got a letter
From her friend
She ain't leaving so
Nothing's gonna end

When I'm done I'm gonna make you scream
But things aren't always just what they seem

When the sun goes down
Need you to come around
To guide me trough the dark
When I'm home again
Make sure to tell all my friends
Just the way you made me feel

I ain't breathing nobody's dead
I ain't walking but That's just what I said
I ain't talking out loud
I'm just trying to Make my brother proud

I never thought I'd be like you
So easily untrue
I never thought I'd be alone
Sitting on that throne
Caught you outside in the rain
Blushing full of shame
Caught you outside in the sun
You're always running
You're always running

AIN'T GOT A KEY

Rest my eyes and pretend you are gone
Know that it all will fade
Time can heal the wounds inside
Make me feel ok
Take a breath, take a deep one I know
It'll all be over soon
Maybe in time
Maybe we'll find
Waking up is not what we want
Waking up is not what we need

You got a locked up heart
And a locked up soul
Hidden down at the bottom
It's too bad, it's too bad
That I ain't got a key

Rest your eyes and pretend I was gone
Know that it all remains
Softly blinded by the beauty of your light
You need to keep up the flame
Take no step further now that you know
No one knows what is right anymore
Maybe in time
Maybe you'll find
Waking up is all that you want
Waking up is all that you need

Come on love now
Tell me
What do you want from me
Come on love now
Show me
The man that I'm supposed to be
Come on love now
Tell me
What do you want from me
Come on love now
Show me
The man that I'm supposed to be
Come on love now
What do you want from me

I ain't got a key

MEAN WOMAN

Dark times are coming
I feel it in my bones
Something strange in here is going on
The earth is quacking
There's rumbling in the sky
No more escaping we're all hung out to dry

Cause there's a
Mean woman
Coming to town
And I know
She's gonna haunt you
Haunt you down
Boy, boy oh boy

You better run run run

Listen

Cold-hearted beauty
Evil and obscene
Darkest soul that I've ever seen
Poor men have suffered
Been caught up in her spell
One thing's for certain we'll all end up in hell

Woman, woman so mean
Yeah she's the meanest that I've ever seen
She takes the good and turns them into bad
She makes the devil, devil go mad

Boy, boy oh boy
You better run run run
I said
Boy, boy oh boy

You better run run run
